DEMOLISHING ABU GHRAIB PRISON

Mr. CRAIG. Mr. President, today the Senator from Nebraska and I are introducing a sense-of-the-Senate resolution. I will read it because I think it is appropriate at this time, when all of us are tremendously frustrated about what has gone on in a certain Iraqi prison.

Expressing the sense of the Senate that the Abu Ghraib prison must be demolished to underscore the United States' abhorrence of the mistreatment of prisoners in Iraq.

Whereas the Abu Ghraib prison was used by Saddam Hussein to execute and torture thousands of men, women and children;

Whereas Saddam Hussein and his Special Security Organization oversaw the execution of thousands of prisoners;

Whereas Abu Ghraib prison is notoriously known as a death chamber by the Iraqi people;

Whereas the Abu Ghraib prison is arguably the largest and most feared prison in the Arab world;

Whereas it is widely known that one of Saddam's sons, in one day, ordered the execution of 3,000 prisoners at the prison;

Whereas the recent reports of the atrocities and abhorrent mistreatment of Iraqi prisoners in the Abu Ghraib prison are un-American, do not represent our values, and have sent the wrong message about the United States intentions in Iraq;

Whereas the American people will not tolerate the mistreatment of Iraqi prisoners;

Whereas the American people view this prison as a symbol of evil, and where past cruel torture and mistreatment occurred;

Whereas the American people would like to rid the world of this evil place where past and, unfortunately currently reported mistreatment has occurred;

Now, therefore, be it Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that the Abu Ghraib prison, also known as the Baghdad Central Detention Center, be completely demolished as an expression and symbolic gesture that the American people will not tolerate the past and the current mistreatment of prisoners.

We are offering this sense-of-the-Senate resolution today because we believe it is a profound and clear expression of the American people's concern and it is a sense of this Senate that we do not accept the treatment that has gone on there of Iraqi detainees.

I yield the floor now to my colleague from Nebraska for a similar expression, and I send this resolution, as proposed, to the desk.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The resolution will be received and appropriately referred.

The Senator from Nebraska.

Mr. NELSON of Nebraska. I thank my colleague from Idaho for this opportunity to express our outrage at the behavior of Saddam's henchmen and for the disgust we have for what some misguided soldiers apparently did in conjunction with the trust they had imposed on them in conjunction with prisoners.

We cannot erase what has been done. We can apologize for it. We can express our outrage. We can say to the American people and to the people of the world, this is not our way and we do not condone it, but we cannot change it and we cannot erase it. I think what we can do is make the broadest statement we possibly can symbolically by leveling this prison.

It seems as though the demons of the Saddam regime carried on in the disguise of Americans who under ordinary circumstances would not have been conducting themselves in this way.

I do not believe in those ghosts, but I do believe the message that can be sent is a very strong one: We do not condone this kind of behavior. The very behavior we went to eradicate needs to be eradicated once again. Those who are criminally responsible must be held to the letter of the law, and those who are responsible in the chain of command must also be held to the highest standards of our military.

I think we can say to the Iraqi people more than we are sorry, which we are, more than we wish it had not occurred, that we stand with them to eradicate this kind of behavior once and for all, at least in that prison. Perhaps symbolically it will help all recognize this kind of behavior is unacceptable anywhere in the world.

I have traveled with my colleagues to various parts of the world, to South Korea, the Baltics, Afghanistan, and Iraq, and those photos do not represent those men and women who serve our Nation honorably or share the values we Americans hold dear.

This prison was the tool of a violent, repressive regime. It is as much a symbol of Saddam's regime as the statues honoring him throughout Iraq. It is even more so in many respects because it represents the truth of what his rule was. Just as those statues were torn down, so should this prison be torn down. This place has become a symbol of abuses and atrocities first under the regime and now sadly with the new acts committed by our troops. We need to make a clean start. What happened in that prison is not American. It does not represent our values, and we need to let the rest of the world know in the most visible way possible that these acts which were committed in that prison are not the American way and not the way America conducts itself.

We need to make a break from the past. We need to level this prison. The symbol of atrocities, this home of abuses, should stand no longer. Let that be our stand, to tear down the prison, to hold those accountable who have engaged in such activities as we have held Saddam accountable, and let us move on so we can say to the people of the world, this is a new start, a break from the past. Let us join with the Iraqi people in building a new Iraq, one that is founded not on the abuses
